Setting Up Your Page

Add a personal message to your page. This is the longer version of the one to two sentence summary. Write about your inspirations, your goals, and what you want to support.

Add a personal message to your page (Optional)

I am helping complete the fleet because Camp Lawrence and Camp Nokomis are special places that have touched people's hearts for many generations and generations to come. Without our help, our camps won't have the necessary tools to continue changing the lives of our community's younger generations.

Living on an island is magical. Anyone who has been a camper at one of our island camps understands this. The magic begins the first time you ride across Lake Winnepesaukee, escorted on The Bear, to a place that will change your life forever.

Setting Up Your Page

Complete the Fleet is an event that is extremely sentimental and personal to those that have participated at Camp Lawrence and Camp Nokomis. When you share your story — when and why you started, where you are, how you are staying involved — you are opening the door to connecting with the entire Camp community.

This event is personal and special, but it is also fun! Get creative with your page — share updates, snap and share pictures of fun memories at camp, and more. Good luck with fundraising!
